CIRCUIT JUDGE JAMES S. BAUME CALLED BY MAKER

Passed Away Sunday at Relative's Home in Rockford.

Judge James Simpson Baume, of Galena, one of the three judges of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, passed away at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Lawler in Rockford, where he was stricken with paralysis a week ago. He experienced a second stroke yesterday. The strokes followed a nervous breakdown and his passing was not unexpected by those in close attendance to him, although during the middle of last week he rallied and showed signs of improvement.

The funeral services over the prominent and beloved jurist will be held at his home in Galena at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and Judge Farrand, who is this week presiding at the Lee County Circuit Court, in which the deceased judge has presided many times, will adjourn court tomorrow afternoon, and he and many of the Lee county attorneys will go to Galena to attend the last rites.

Son of Dixon Minister.

Judge Baume was the son of James and Marie Antonette Baume, his father at one time having been a Methodist minister in this city. He was born April 27, 1857, and after finishing his school education attended Northwestern University from 1872 to 1874. He then took up the study of law, and during his practice he won all the worthy honors of the profession. For a number of years he served as Master-in-Chancery of the Jo Daviess County Circuit court, and he was serving as such when he was first elected a judge of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit in June, 1897. He was re-elected in 1903, again in 1909, and also in 1915. At the time of his death he had served 22 years on the Circuit bench.

On Appellate Bench.

Thirteen years of his career as a judge he spent as a justice of the Appellate Court, having been appointed with Judges Graves and Duncan, the last of whom is now in the Supreme Court of the state, as a justice of the District Appellate Court of Chicago when that court was created by special act of the legislature in 1911. Previously he had been assigned to the Appellate court of the Third District in 1903, 1906 and 1909 and he also served at Springfield as a justice of the Appellate Court for some time.

Was Married Twice.

The judge was married twice. From the first marriage two children survive: a son, Henry, who is now in business in Denver, Col., and a daughter, Marie, married and residing in Evanston. One daughter, Ruth, married and now residing in Omaha, Neb., was the issue of the second marriage.

Judge Baume had served as a director of the Galena Public Library, was a member of the Hamilton club of Chicago, was a Methodist and a member of the Masonic Order. He was a man of fine personality, marked ability and wonderful honesty and open-mindedness, and sincere mourning will be felt throughout the district because of his passing.

To Elect Successor.

It is probable Gov. Lowden within a few days will issue a call for a special election to choose a judge to fill the unexpired part of his term, two years, as provided by statute.

Pays Ransom to Get Son From Mexicans

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, July 28.—Acting upon the advice of the Mexican government, John West Thompson, an American ranchman, living near Mexico City, has paid the 1500 pesos ransom demanded by bandits for the release of his 14-year-old son, the state department was advised today. The Mexican authorities said they feared the bandits would murder the boy unless they received the money.

Secretary Lansing said the Mexican foreign office had agreed to refund the amount of the ransom and to take measures for the capture and punishment of the bandits.

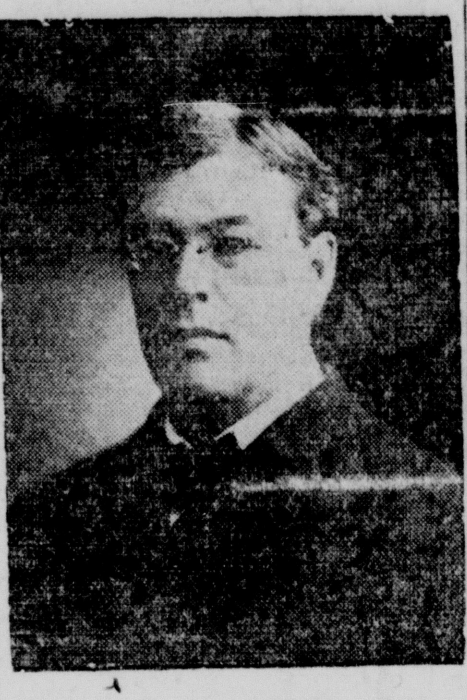

The kidnapping took place last Thursday, at the Thompson ranch 30 miles from Mexico City and the boy was released on Friday.

GRAND JURY IS AGAIN WORKING ON CO. INFIRMARY

Resume Investigations
Today Following Recess.

The April grand jury, which was convened by Judge Heard at the petition of State's Attorney Harry Edwards to investigate charges concerning the alleged mismanagement of the Lee County Infirmary, and which recessed after returning indictments against Superintendent Clyde Wieher and submitting a report censuring the Board of Supervisors for failure to know of and remedy these conditions, reconvened today to resume the investigations which were then started.

A large number of witnesses have been summoned to appear before the inquisitorial body, and it is not probable the grand jurors will complete their work until tomorrow sometime. While no announcement has been made, it is rumored that the investigation undertaken today has to deal with the alleged questionable dealings between Mr. Wieher and some of the supervisors.

Dixon's new bank will be The Dixon Trust & Savings Bank. It will have a capital stock of $100,000 and a paid-in surplus of $25,000. Attorney John E. Erwin, one of the organizers, stated in an interview with The Telegraph today, that the stock in the new bank has been over-subscribed.

The task of having the building prepared for occupancy, obtaining fixtures, etc., is being forwarded rapidly under the direction of a committee, composed of the following prominent Dixon men: Jarvis Leake, William Stark, John E. A number of changes are contemplated, both in the interior and the exterior of the building and the committee plans improvements that will beautify the corner considerably.

Mr. Erwin stated to The Telegraph today that the organizers of the new bank feel that it will be a benefit to the city and vicinity and that it is the desire of those connected with it to make The Dixon Trust & Savings Bank a strong, successful and influential financial institution such as will rank favorably with the strong and splendid banking institutions which the city boasts at present.

Mr. Erwin said that the new bank would be open as soon as the remodeling of the building and the installation of the fixtures could be accomplished. Although all stockholders has been held as yet and therefore the directors and officers of the bank have not yet been elected.

TWO KILLED AND 50 HURT IN RACE RIOT IN CHICAGO

General Fight Between Blacks and Whites
Staged Sunday.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, July 28.—Unless the police are able to quell the race riots in Chicago's black belt, which began last night and continued today with one dead and more than fifty injured, city authorities may ask Governor Lowden to send a regiment of state militia to restore order.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., July 28.—Trouble between white men and negroes was renewed in Chicago's black belt when Moses Thomas, a negro, fired several shots at a wagon load of white workmen being taken to a south side factory. When an attempt was made by white men to disarm Thomas, a dozen negroes rushed to his assistance. The police quelled the disturbance and reported that nobody had been injured.

The disturbance occurred on Wentworth avenue between 35th and 37th streets where many negro workmen reside.

Police today said they had been unable to find any trace of the unidentified white boy reported drowned yesterday in Lake Michigan at the foot of 28th street during the race disturbances.

During the early hours five calls were sent to the police in which fights were reported on Wentworth avenue in the vicinity of 35th street. In every instance the fighting was over when the police arrived, and Moses Thomas, a negro, was the only person arrested.

Fifty mounted police and 100 patrolmen today were assigned to guard the district while 500 policemen were held in reserve.

The patrolmen were instructed to search all negroes for firearms and to prevent whites and blacks from congregating in groups of more than three persons.

The police today declared that only one unidentified negro is known to be dead and 55 persons were injured, 33 white men and 22 negroes.

By Associated Press Leased Wire.

Chicago, Ill., July 28.—The situation in the "black belt" of Chicago, where race rioting last night resulted in the death of two negroes and the injury of perhaps 50 or more whites and blacks, including four patrolmen, was under control of the police early today.

Accounts of the origin of the trouble differ, but the version accepted by the police today is that the fighting started at the 29th street bathing beach where the whites and colored people are accustomed to swim in Lake Michigan, although the two races are separated by an imaginary line. This version of the affair says that a negro boy on a raft crossed the boundary line and that white boys threw stones, knocking the colored lad into the water. He was drowned. A general fight developed between the races and riot calls brought several hundred police in to the colored district, the center of which is around 31st and State streets, more than a mile from the beach.

Negroes Beat White Boy.

Negroes asked the police to arrest a white boy and when he refused the negroes began to beat the white lad. Colored bathers from another beach at 25th street attracted by the fighting came in force to the rescue and soon stones and clubs were hurled in all directions, many people, both white and black, being injured by the missiles.

After the fighting near the beach had been quelled, trouble broke out further.

Reaction Succeeds Advance in Stocks

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, July 28.—Reactions of 1 to 2 points in equipments and oils succeeded the early advance on the stock exchange today after which the market settled down to narrow and restricted operations. For the first time in many weeks the turn over of the morning dwindled to relatively nominal proportions, many of the usual leaders being altogether ignored. Intermittent rallies were led by shipwreck, low priced motors and steel and several local issues, including New York dock common and preferred, which added six points each to last week's extensive gains. Call money opened at 6 to 6 1/2 per cent.

American Commercial Travelers Get Pass to Visit Germany

WILSON CONFERS WITH DEMOCRATS ON PEACE TREATY

Holds Up Conferences with Republicans for Present.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, July 28.—President Wilson began discussion of the peace treaty today with democratic senators. Further conferences with republican senators, a dozen of whom already have visited the white house, were held in abeyance.

Senator Thomas, democrat, of Colorado, was the first caller today, remaining with the president for half an hour. He described his talk with the president as "highly satisfactory" but refused to go into details of the discussion. The Colorado senator said he was reading the treaty for the fourth time and was not yet ready to announce his attitude.

Declaring that "the idea that the treaty and the league of nations will bring about permanent world peace was largely illusory, Senator Thomas said he would address the senate tomorrow on one phase of the treaty—the effect it might have on the peace of the world.

May Hear From Wilson.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, July 28.—The beginning today of the tenth week of senate debate on the peace treaty was accompanied by many evidences of expectancy that statements from President Wilson soon might clarify the two issues around which discussion has centered—Shantung and reservations.

Indications at the white house that the president might within a few days take a public stand regarding the reservation proposal led senate leaders to believe that the lines of that controversy might speedily be drawn. Whether the president would express readiness to accept reservations or other qualifications not imperiling the league covenant remained a subject of conjecture but more than one republican senator who had seen him at the white house believed his stand will not be an uncompromising one for unreserved ratification.

The hope of developments regarding the Shantung provision was based on the president's diplomatic conversations with Japan to secure a public declaration of his future policy regarding the peninsula, including preferably the publication of the secret understanding with China for its restoration.

In the belief that it could complete today's sessions the preliminary reading of the treaty next, the foreign relations committee plans to lay the document aside for a short while to-morrow to permit action on the long-sending Columbia R. treaty.

The speech of Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, replying to the criticism of article ten of the league covenant, was the only one of which previous notice had been given for today in the senate.

CAR TIPPED OVER NO ONE WAS HURT

A Maxwell touring car belonging to a resident of Davenport, who was on his way back home from Rockford, was considerably damaged when it turned over on its side on the big hill on the Mount Union road last evening about 8 o'clock. The owner of the car, whose name could not be learned, was driving toward Dixon with his wife and four-year-old son, sitting in the front seat beside him.

As he neared the top of the steep hill, he found that it was necessary to shift gears and in so doing, applied the brakes. These failed to hold on the hill and the car backed down a short distance, the rear wheel running into a ditch. After the car had been brought to a full stop, the machine slowly turned over on its side. The woman and child were thrown out of the car but neither suffered a scratch. The driver was bruised slightly but not enough to demand medical attention. Other motorists stopped and assisted in righting the car which was only slightly damaged, and the tourists proceeded on their way to Dixon.

WILKINSON GIRL DIED AT HANDS OF FITZGERALD

Janitor Tells How He Choked Her and Hid
Body in Cellar.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, July 28.—Thomas Fitzgerald slept soundly last night after he had confessed to the murder of Janet Wilkinson, 6 years old. He seemed interested in ascertaining what power a coroner's jury had in his case. "I don't care what they do to me now," he said.

While Fitzgerald sat in his cell at the East Chicago avenue police station chatting with his guards, the parents of the murdered girl made plans for her funeral. Six little boys and girl playmates, dressed in white, will act as pallbearers.

Fitzgerald was examined by several alienists today who will testify at the coroner's inquest.

The police took precautions to prevent any outbreak by spectators at the inquest. Every person in attendance was searched for firearms before entering the room.

Fitzgerald was booked on a charge of murder and arraigned before Municipal Judge Samuel P. Trade. At the request of the police the prisoner was held without bail and the hearing continued until August 2. The father of the murdered girl appeared as complainant.

When asked by the court if he had anything to say, Fitzgerald replied in a low tone: "I have nothing to say, sir."

When questioned in his cell by newspaper reporters Fitzgerald said: "My conscience doesn't bother me in the least, I am not worrying. The only thing that bothers me are the files. I feel easy now that I have confessed. The police treat me well here and I have no complaint. Of course nobody was to blame for this thing but me."

The coroner's jury after reading Fitzgerald's confession and listening to the testimony of several police officials returned a verdict holding the prisoner to the grand jury without bail on a charge of murder.

A crowd of several thousand gathered outside the police station while the inquest was being held.

By Associated Press Leased Wire.

Chicago, Ill., July 28.—Formal charge of murder was filed today against Thomas Fitzgerald, who yesterday confessed to the police in the presence of three witnesses that he killed Janet Wilkinson, 6 years old, who had been missing since last Tuesday. After signing the confession Fitzgerald took the police to his home where he pointed out the spot where the body of the little girl was found under a pile of coal beneath the basement steps.

Fitzgerald, who was janitor of a building in the vicinity of the Wilkinson flat, had often seen the girl and last Tuesday offered her candy. After enticing her to his rooms he told her police that he strangled her to stop her cries.

"Before I knew what I was doing, I had my hands about her throat, and had strangled her," said Fitzgerald. He had been classed by the police as a moron.

Fitzgerald slept almost the entire night last night, having been grilled by the police constantly since last Wednesday when he was arrested on suspicion of murdering the child.

The coroner's inquest, begun yesterday, was resumed today, and according to Coroner Hoffman, it will be finished quickly.

NEED EQUIPMENT MORE THAN WORD OF APPRECIATION

Officers of Sixth I. R.
M. So Decide at Meet at Aurora.

Major Sam Cushing and Captain George Fruin returned home Saturday evening from Aurora where they attended a meeting of the commissioned officers of the Sixth regiment of the Illinois Reserve Militia. Considerable business pertaining to the future welfare of the state organization was discussed at this session. Chief of these, however, was the matter of starting the members of the various companies in range practice.

The company commanders were instructed to arrange for taking the members of their detachments to a rifle range in the month of September for a two-day practice. Two ranges are available at this time and have been assigned to the use of the reserve militia. Companies from the northern part of the state will use the range at Camp Logan, near Chicago, while the down state companies will go to Camp Lincoln near Springfield for their rifle practice. The Dixon company will in all probability go to Camp Logan about the second week in September for a Saturday and Sunday shoot.

Is Not Compulsory.
It is not compulsory that every member of the company enter into this rifle practice this year, but all are urged to attend who can do so without interfering with personal business. It is believed that the state will furnish all of the companies with new model

PRUDENT COURSE FOR U. S. FORMER JUSTICE ASSERTS

Withdrawal, Immigration
Internal Affairs,
Monroe Pact, cited.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, July 28.—A number of reservations to the league of nations covenant have been suggested by Chas. Evans Hughes, of New York, in an opinion transmitted under date of July 24 to Senator Frederick Hale, of Maine. The opinion, as shown by the correspondence made public here today, was sought by the senator in a letter of July 18. The senator wrote that he felt certain that considerably more than one-third of the senate would favor to ratify the peace treaty with the covenant as it now stands but that he personally did not want to see that happen. He asked for an opinion as to the validity of reservations to the league covenant and as to what those reservations should be.

League Is Needed
"There is plain need for a league of nations," Mr. Hughes wrote in reply. "In order to provide for the adequate development of international law, for creating and maintaining organs of national justice and the machinery of conciliation and conference, and for giving effect to measures of international cooperation which from time to time may be agreed upon."

"I perceive no reason why these objects cannot be obtained without sacrificing the essential interests of the United States. There is a middle ground between aloofness and injurious commitments."

Should Adopt Reservations
"I think that the prudent course is to enter the proposed league with reservations of a reasonable character, adequate to our security, which should meet ready assent, and thus to establish a condition of amity at the earliest possible moment."

Reservations would be ineffectual unless they constitute a part of the instrument of ratification.

"If the senate should adopt reservations by a majority vote," the letter continued, "I assume that these will be made a part of the proposed resolution of assent to the treaty, and the question will then be whether the senate will give its assent, with these reservations, by the requisite two-thirds vote. If the proposed reservations are reasonable, the responsibility for the defeat of the treaty, if it is defeated, will lie with those who refuse the vote essential to the assent. If the senate gives its assent to the treaty, with reservations, the concurrence of the president will still be necessary, as ratification will not be complete without his action, and the responsibility for a refusal to give the ratification with the reservations as adopted by the senate

POLO SOLDIER TELLS OF 'HARDBOILED' LIFE IN YANK PRISON CAMP

Seized on Leave, Pay Stopped and Reduced in Rank.

The Chicago Tribune of Sunday contained the following of interest to the people of this city where the principals mentioned are well known:

Corroborative of the charges of cruelty to American army prisoners in American prison camps in France is the letter appearing below. It is written by Dr. L. A. Baird, president of the Ogles county, Ill., tuberculosis sanitarium, concerning the experience of a former polo player, who, after his release from the army, went back to his present home in Sioux Falls, S. D. The letter, addressed to The Tribune from Polo is as follows:

"Clifford F. Smith, a former polo player, was here on his way home and astounded me with his stories. It seems that visits to Paris was reserved to the commissioned men and no others were permitted to visit Paris on his leave of absence. This was the universal ambition of every man who was in the army and Smith, like many others after the armistice was signed and he was given a few days off, went into Paris.

"Stripped of Rank—Pay Stopped. "He had bought a few things for his mother and was picked up by a M. P. man, court martialled, reduced in rank—he was either corporal or sergeant—his pay stopped and sentenced to prison. Smith had been in an engineers' regiment and had been doing plumbing in refitting a large ententeu into a modern hospital and had charge of about twenty-one men all the time he was there.

"He said that all of their money was taken from them. Most of it was kept. They had no beds, no chance for a bath. Poor food, nothing but their hands to eat with, and no remedies if they were sick. He told of one man who had a picture of his mother in his pocket and the officer, taking it out, said 'What damn—— is this the picture of?'

"The man replied, 'Why, that is a picture of my mother,' whereupon the officer tore the picture into scraps and threw them to his face.

Inspector Sent to Prison. "After he had about three months of this, and about seventy-five were coming in every day, about seventy-five would be discharged daily. When these men reached their commands or ranks they would complain to their officers. The matter was reported to headquarters and the inspector was sent to the prison.

"The boys were lined up and told to tell their story. It resulted in a court martial of the officers of the prison. Smith said he was in attendance at the court martial at Tours for nine weeks and the sergeants got from a year up at Fort Leavenworth and the commander ten years.

"One thing that made a man furious to hear him tell of was that the men of the camp were lined up for inspection often and held at strict attention for fifteen minutes to forty-five. The least waver of faltering was punished by beating the men in an unmerciful manner.

Restored to Rank. "The clipping inclosed tells of Smith going back to business and shows the character of man that Smith is. Every word that he will tell you is truthful.

"After the court martial he was restored to former rank, etc. His discharge removed all taint of arrest or infraction of orders. I think that Ley Maloney will recall Clifford Smith."

OBITUARY.

DANIEL SCHUCK.

Daniel Schuck was born December 28, 1839, in Rhinefeld, Germany. At the age of five years he came to America with his parents and they located at Ackerlyville, Wis., where he grew to manhood, coming to Illinois and settling in Palmyra township in 1867. Mr. Schuck was married to Miss Anna Trouth on June 23, 1874, at the home of her parents in Palmyra, and to the union were born seven sons and three daughters. One son, George D., passed away a number of years ago, the following children surviving to mourn with the widow: Jacob H., of Blue Earth, Minn.; Mrs. G. A. Fritz and William E., of Sterling, Ill.; Mary E., at home, Arthur F., of Blue Earth, Minn.; Richard P., of Palmyra township; Clarence A., of Sterling, Ill., and Mrs. Wilbur Bates, of Dixon.

The deceased is also survived by fourteen grand children, one sister, Mrs. Katherine Sheets, of Milwaukee, Wis., and one brother, George Schuck, of Ackerlyville, Wis.

Early on Saturday morning, July 26, he fell asleep at the age of 79 years, 6 months and 23 days. For over half a century he had been an industrious and highly respected farmer of Palmyra and his home on the Lincoln Highway, just a few miles west of Dixon, was an inviting place, always attracting the attention of passersby. It was a most hospitable home, where for many years as the large family grew to manhood and womanhood, friends and associates found a most cordial welcome.

Mr. Schuck was a quiet man, obliging, and was very highly respected as a neighbor. He was a man of unusual vigor and good health until the last two years of his life. It will be a comforting memory that all of the members of the family were present at the last sad rites.

The Rev. N. H. Kern, of the Ashton Methodist church, read the service, using the ring ceremony. A niece of the bride, Miss Mabel Griesie, of Dixon, was maid of honor, and Elmer Luckey, of Ashton, a nephew of the bride, was best man to Mr. Gerdes.

FRANK E. STEVENS TO HELP WRITE HISTORY

Frank E. Stevens, publisher of the Sycamore Tribune, formerly editor of the Dixon Citizen, has been appointed under house joint resolution No. 16, in company with William H. Miller of Champaign, as a member of a like committee from each of the states comprising the original northwest territory to make recommendations concerning a memorial to the early settlers of such territory.

The committees will deal with the matter of early day history of the states of Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio, known as the Northwest territory.

In 1797 congress passed a bill naming this territory and also naming a governor. One important plank in the constitution of the territory was that no slavery should be allowed inside the territorial limits and all states that entered it after that date would be expected to conform to the same rules.

Indiana tried at three various times to introduce slavery, and was defeated each time. Illinois made but one effort to go against the constitution and likewise was defeated. Matters went on and finally one by one states withdrew and became independent territories.

It is for the erection of a suitable memorial somewhere in these states, and the collection of all historical data to be used with it, that the Sycamore man is expected to work with the other committees.

CZERNIN REPORT TOLD OF FUTILITY OF FURTHER WAR

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Copenhagen, July 28.—A dispatch from Vienna says that Count Czernin, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has published a statement to the effect that his report to Emperor Charles under date of April 12, 1917, was handed to Mathias Erzberger without his knowledge by certain irresponsible persons.

Herr Erzberger, Count Czernin says, acted in good faith, and declares the handing over of the report was a link in the chain of minor intrigues which caused him to resign.

Count Czernin asserts he will shortly publish a book clearing up these matters.

A Copenhagen dispatch of Sunday said Count Czernin's report had been published at Weimar, the seat of the German national assembly. The principal point of the report was the necessity of opening peace negotiations "before our enemies are aware of our expiring power."

The report warned Emperor Charles of the deceptiveness of hopes founded on submarine warfare and emphasized what America's entry into the struggle would mean.

Count Czernin's report was made the subject of an attack on Mathias Erzberger in the German national assembly.

Licensed To Wed—A marriage license was issued late Saturday afternoon to Ira Utz, aged 38, and Miss Mary Krug, aged 17, both of this city.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

BARRETT EDMONDS CALLS UPON SANDRA

CHAPTER XXXI.

I was glad to be relieved of the responsibilities of dinner giving, etc. But I couldn't help feeling a little hurt when I wasn't even consulted. I was the mistress of the house, yet in all ways treated by Everett more as his servant than his wife. Naturally the servants took their cue from him, and even Mrs. Gray gradually stopped talking things over with me as she had at first, and went ahead as if the house were her own; and probably as she had done before Everett married me.

Everett had hired a butler before we commenced to entertain, so that now we had five servants—Mrs. Gray, and Hetty, Richard and the butler, Peter the chauffeur, and a laundress. At home we never had had but the two old negroes who had done everything for us—that is, all save what mother herself did.

I felt that I had quite an establishment, and while, as I have said, I had not the slightest desire to have the responsibility of running it—I knew very well I was not capable—I should have liked them to ask my opinion occasionally. I said nothing of this to Everett, but as the weeks passed it became another grievance, one which I also laid to the fact of my youth.

I had met Barrett Edmonds several times since that supper dance and each time I liked him better. He had a frank boyish way that was very attractive. His fine dark eyes would light up and he would appear so interested that I felt flattered. When I was with him I forgot to fret because I was not older; and just laughed and chatted as I had done with the boys at home.

Barrett was very fond of music—one would know that if they ever danced with him. When he found I sang, and played my own accompaniments, he asked if he might come in some afternoon and bring me some of his favorite songs.

"I make a big noise myself at times" was the way he told me he sang. Afterward I learned that he had a wonderful baritone voice which had been highly cultivated.

I was delighted to tell him that he might call. Then afterward I was a bit frightened. Perhaps Everett would object. At first I thought I would tell him. Then I recalled that Mr. Edmond had set no time for a call. He might forget all about it. I would wait.

But I blushed as I pretended to think he might forget—I knew he wouldn't. I also knew I did not want him to. It was so nice to have someone to talk to; someone who treated you like a human being, and did not either patronize or make fun of you. I wanted to be taken seriously. No one seemed to think me worth while.

My birthday was the seventh of February. Everett had spoken of having another dinner party; but I had begged him to take me to a play instead. For once heagreed to do as I wished—but I think he had not really made up his mind that he wanted a dinner party, so he didn't care.

At breakfast he gave me my birthday present—a bond for a thousand dollars and a dainty flexible bracelet.

"I shall try to give you a bond on each birthday. One never knows what may happen in business." Then he showed me about cutting the coupons.

I was delighted. It made me feel quite important, and I told him so. He seemed pleased that I like my gifts. Before he left, a package came from home—a remembrance from everyone, even from Buster. There was nothing expensive, but dainty embroidered napkins from Mother, books from Father and the boys. It was nice to be so remembered.

After Everett went I showed them all to Mrs. Gray and Hetty. They both acted mysterious, altho they praised my gifts. But I paid little attention, and ran upstairs to put them away. Everett was going to take the bond down and get a safety box in my name. But I begged him to leave it with me for the day.

"Very well," he had smiled at me for my request. "You may go with me to-morrow and get a box."

I spent the morning writing letters home, thanking them all and telling of Everett's gifts. After luncheon I had about decided to go out when Hetty came up and announced Mr. Edmonds.

I was in a perfect flutter of delight. It had been my first call from a young man since I had been married—really from any young person, either man or woman. I glanced in the mirror, then hurried down to the drawing room. "I have brought some music. If you are not going out, and have time we might try a piece or two," he said after I had greeted him.

Hearst's Magazine—a Liberal Education

The object of Hearst's is to entertain and enlighten. Through all its entertainment, however, runs a certain serious purpose—a definite mission. And that mission is to discuss, elucidate and solve—so far as is possible—the vital questions of family and public life that people everywhere are themselves considering and discussing.

Not since Cervantes wrote Don Quixote has a Spanish novelist attained such universal popularity as Vicente Blasco Ibañez—author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." In Hearst's for August comes Ibañez' first short story—"A Serbian Night." In the same issue are stories by Robert W. Chambers, Richard Washburn Child, Frederic Arnold Kummer, Arthur Somers Roche and others.

Can any real man from God's own open country loiter about New York City without corroding his very soul? That is the theme of ARTHUR STRAUSS' masterly novel now running in Hearst's. Competent critics pronounce "This Light Must Live" the best serial in any magazine.

The magic of the Sheikhs El Djebel—the Eight Castles and the 50,000 Hassans in white turbans and robes of white—all are known to Treasa Norme, the blue-eyed American girl. "The Slayer of Souls," a new series of stories by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS—in Hearst's for August.

"Spiritualism," says COSAN DOYLE, "is the most important development in history." Now comes a great novel, "Resurrection Rock," by Edwin Balmer showing some of the most sensational discoveries in spiritualism. Begin it in the new August Hearst's. Three other novels in the same issue.

If you are not interested in a magazine a bit beyond the ordinary—if you don't particularly care for a magazine that will make you think—you won't want Hearst's this month or any other. But if you want the works of the world's great writers; if you want the words of the world's real leaders; if you want the thoughts of the world's great thinkers; don't fail to make sure each month—starting today with August—of your regular copy of

TAFT AGREES TO RESERVATIONS

Former President Taft, who has been the chief aid of President Wilson in working for ratification of the peace treaty and the league covenant, with out reservations, has seen the hopelessness of the struggle, and he has formulated a list of reservations which he is ready to agree to and which he believes will remove all objections that have been urged, will assure ratification by the senate and at the same time will be acceptable to the other interested powers.

Mr. Taft's suggested reservations, as thus far made public, seem to cover everything that has been asked for in the way of reservations, except as to the delivery of Shantung to Japan. Such delivery will doubtless be made whether the United States agrees to it or not that is, if the other powers agree, as they surely will, the transfer having been practically assured by them in advance. This being the case it might well be taken for granted, whether the senate makes reservations, as to this or not, that China by this time knows the feeling of the United States. The onus of the putting through of this Shantung clause will be placed by the Chinese where it belongs—on the European powers—and the friendly feeling between the United States and China will not be likely to be strained.

Former President Taft, in suggesting these reservations, puts himself on record as an earnest advocate of a trying out by this country of the idea of the league of nations. He has made a study of the whole subject and he believes that England, France, Italy and Japan will readily accede to the making of such reservations by the United States.

The fact that Mr. Taft has been constrained to make his suggestions after assuring himself that without reservations there would be no ratification merely emphasizes his earnestness in behalf of a tryout of the new plan. His hundred percent Americanism is shown, too, in one of the reported reservations that he is said to have outlined—regarding representation in the council of the league: "Self-governing colonies can not be represented on the council if the home government is represented." Such an amendment would remove one of the principal objections to the council. At least it would wipe out the predominance of Great Britain over the United States in the council though it would remain a fact that the European nations acting together would still be in position to dominate.

It is the fact of the ability, in any event, of Europe to outvoice America in the council that in the first place called for a fuller and more complete safeguarding of the Monroe doctrine. And this latter Mr. Taft provides for in his suggestions.

PREPARE FOR MORE "FLU."

It has been the experience with waves of influenza or grip that they return the second season with almost as much severity as during the first outbreak and then gradually disappear. Dr. Robertson, Chicago's health officer, has conceived the idea that a knowledge of home nursing general among women of the city will be the surest defense against the disease the coming autumn and winter, and Chicago women are to have it without cost to themselves. Such knowledge should be sought after by every Dixon woman who can possibly attain it.

HORSE DIED ON STEP OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH

A horse belonging to the Hoef Coal Co., which had been under the care of a veterinarian for some time, got out of its stable Saturday night and wandered to the Episcopal church, where it selected a spot in the main west entrance of the building, settled down, and died. Its body was discovered early Sunday morning. Mr. Hoef for attaches no significance to the fact that his horse selected his church for its final rest.

ZEBRA LADIES OUT ON STRIKE

Little shetland pony, coy little mare, has all but broken up the big zebra act in A. G. Barnes circus that arrives here for a one day exhibit, August 5.

Nat is the boss zebra of the herd. He has five wives, Molly, Doty, Bertha, Lizzie and Mary.

Al G. Barnes, premier wild animal educator, makes a specialty of hybrids. He figured on producing a cross between a zebra and a shetland pony. Therefore he introduced Dorothy into the sextette.

Nat favored the alliance; the wives didn't. The boss of the herd put forth his best paces and the shetland flattered at the striped Beau Brummel's advances, responded in kind.

Then to Barnes' consternation the zebra ladies went on a strike—with their hoofs. And Nat went to the hospital. The shetland lady vamoosed.

In turn was born a hybrid, half shetland, half zebra, which added to the turmoil. And now, Barnes claims the zebra girls won't work with Nat in the ring.

Said Barnes today: "I have tried to work this act since the shetland broke in on the scene, but to no avail; the zebra girls are awfully sore at Nat. The shetland lady has absolutely jinxed the scheme of things so far as my zebra act is concerned. I'll stage the zebra act in Dixon just the same, but poor Nat, as recent experience will prove, will get many a swift kick."

"This proves to me that the female of the species," even among animal kind, is just as jealous as the human."

The zebra-shetland pony hybrid will be on exhibition in the animal tent along with the nursery babies of the show.

Policeman Is Attacked.

John O'Brien, a policeman, was attacked by a mob at 29th and State streets after he had tried to rescue a fellow policeman from a crowd of negroes. Several shots were fired in his direction and he was struck in the arm. He drew his revolver and fired into the crowd, three colored men being hit, one of whom died later in a hospital.

After the police reserves had dispersed the crowds along State street and other parts of the thickly populated colored district, whites from other parts of the city dragged negroes from street cars and beat them severely in several instances during the night, but according to the police records early today only two fatalities resulted from the rioting.

Many stray shots were heard during the night and the police answered two riot calls early today, but their services were not required in either instance.

150,000 Blacks In Chicago.

It is estimated that there are close to 150,000 negroes in Chicago, nearly 50,000 of whom were drawn here during the last three or four years by the attractive wages in shops and factories engaged in manufacturing war materials. Virtually all of the negroes live on the south side of the city and many have acquired property in desirable neighborhoods occupied by the whites. This has led to many minor clashes between the races and in a number of instances in recent months bombs have been exploded in buildings occupied by negroes.

Assembly Review.

Saturday

7:30—Musical Prelude—the Dixon Municipal band. With a varied assortment of instruments, and closest attention and confidence in their leader, Mr. Will H. Smith, this organization will rank among the best in the state. Their program gave "pep" to the initial entertainment of the Assembly and Dixon can well be proud of their unusual band.

8:15—Opening exercises, Rev. C. E. Ward Derr, Ph. D., presiding. In the absence of Dr. L. B. Wolf, Dr. F. D. Altman, D. D., Vice President of the board of directors, gave the invocation. A brief address of welcome was given by the president of the Assembly board, Theodore Trough, of Sterling.

8:30—Musical concert by the Schumann Quintet. Under the direction of Carl Lempert, this organization has made possible a notable advance in the musical life of the Lyceum and Chautauqua. To secure the symphonic effect, a specially constructed organ is carried by this company, which gives all the need and wind effects of a large orchestra and combined with the piano and stringed instruments, produces results as surprising as they are unique. Their rendition of such old favorites as the Poet and Peasant Overture, Beethoven's Minuet in G, and the Soldier's Chorus from Faust, won their audience, giving proof that the people are hungry for real music. An especial "hit" of the evening was a cello solo—Godard's Slumber Song—played by Mr. Dave Williams.

9:45—Moving pictures, under the direction of Mr. L. C. Rorer of Dixon. An educational film and a suitable comedy gave entertainment to the children as well as the grownups of the Assembly.
11:00—Curfew—closing the initial day of the Assembly.

Sunday

9:30 a. m.—Assembly Sunday school, Theo. Trough, General Superintendent, Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Rex, Freeport, Ill. assistants.

10:30 a. m.—Morning worship. Sermon by Rev. Charles Stelling Baughman D. D., General Secretary of the Board of Education of the United Lutheran church in America, Hursburg, Pa. The subject of his address was, "The Call of the New Crusade," and consisted of an interpretation of Christ's words to him in the temple at Jerusalem: "Wist ye not that I be about my Father's business?" His central theme was the Gospel of Hard Work.

2:00 p. m.—Musical prelude, the Schumann Quintet. This musical organization, already popular with the audience, played the Spring Song by Mendelssohn, the well-known Il Trovatore by Verdi and Mr. Williams, cellist, favored the audience with Wagner's Evening Star.

2:30 p. m.—Lecture "Two Snakes in Eden," by Dr. Stanley L. Krebs, New York City. Dr. Krebs holds the record for rather unusual activities in the realm of science and research. His remarkable command of language, his powers of analysis, the logic of his reasoning, the scope of his learning and his keen wit, have brought him fame and standing. The Two Snakes in Eden are Fear and Worry; taking away 90 per cent of the happiness of human life and are purely mental things. Some startling statements he made are: "Worry is the first stage of insanity; gossip is insanity; one-third of all insanity is due to worry; and worry has killed more people than all other diseases combined." His message is one of science, not of opinion. He is an original thinker, a man of magnetic personality, an awakener of energy and purpose—handling the great problems of individual and national life of our times.

4:00 p. m.—Concert, the Dixon Symphony Orchestra. This organization, under the efficient leadership of Mr. Will H. Smith, gave an excellent program, ranging from semipopular to classical music, to suit every taste. A commendable and unusual feature of this orchestra was the trained way in which the many violinists bowed as one—a sign of a well-trained orchestra. The writer believes the lady clarinetist to be worthy of special mention. We look forward to the remaining concerts of this organization.

7:15 p. m.—Riverside Sunset service.
8:15 p. m.—Service of music by the Schumann Quintet. Their final entertainment consisted of the overture William Tell; Barcarolle, from the "Tales of Hoffman"; the Peer Gynt Suite; and Scotch Folk Songs. Miss Murdoch, violinist, delighted the big audience with a "Spanish Dance," and Mr. Williams, cellist, rendered the Swan Song, responding to an encore with Schubert's Serenade. His freedom of time, smoothness of bow, and choice of selection brought him favor with his audience. The program was concluded with the Quartette from Rigoletto.

Personals

Mr. Allen Hersch and wife, and two daughters, Frances and Elizabeth were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Peery, all of Polo, over Sunday.

PRUDENT COURSE
FOR U. S., FORMER JUSTICE ASSERTS

as a part of the instrument of ratification would thus lie with the president.

In case of ratification with reservations, the other parties to the treaty would be notified, he continued. As a contract the treaty would bind only those who consent to it.

After outlining his opinion on various articles of the covenant Mr. Hughes wrote that reservations and interpretations might be in some such form as the following:

Form of Reservation

"The senate of the United States of America advises and consents to the ratification of said treaty with the following reservations and understandings as to its interpretation and effect to be made a part of the instrument of ratification:

On Withdrawal Question

"First: That whenever two years' notice of withdrawal from the league of nations shall have been given, as provided in article 1 of the covenant, the power giving the notice shall cease to be a member of the league or subject to the obligations of the covenant of the league, at the time specified in the notice, notwithstanding any claim, charge or finding of the non-fulfillment of any international obligation or of any obligation under said covenant; provided, however, that such withdrawal shall not release the power from any debt or liability therefore incurred.

Protect Immigration

"Second: That questions relating to immigration, or the composition of duties on imports where such questions do not arise out of any international engagement, are questions of domestic policy, and these and any other questions which, according to international law are solely within the domestic jurisdiction are not to be submitted for the consideration or action of the league of nations or any of its agencies.

Uphold American Traditions

"Third: That the meaning of article XXI of the covenant of the league of nations is that the United States of America does not relinquish its traditional attitude toward purely American questions, and is not required by said covenant to submit its policies regarding questions which it deems to be purely American questions to the league of nations or any of its agencies, and that the United States of America may oppose and prevent any acquisition by any non-American power by conquest, purchase or in any other manner of any territory, possession or control in the western hemisphere.

Freedom of Action

"Fourth: That the meaning of article X of the covenant of the league of nations is that the members of the league are not under any obligations to act in pursuance of said article except as they may decide to act upon the advice of the council of the league. The United States of America assumes no obligation under said article to undertake any military expedition, or to employ its armed forces on land or sea, unless such action is authorized by the congress of the United States of America which has exclusive authority to declare war or to determine for the United States of America whether there is any obligation on its part under said article and the means or action by which any such obligation shall be fulfilled.

In his detailed explanation of reservations he thought necessary, Mr. Hughes said that different constructions had been placed upon article 1, of the covenant, regarding the right of withdrawal from the league, and he thought some clarifying statements necessary.

Article XV Ambiguous

In article XV, he said the clause as to domestic matters, such as immigration or tariff, is ambiguous.

Advocates of the covenant urged that article XXI recognizes and preserves the Monroe doctrine. "But," said Mr. Hughes, "the descriptive phrase is inaccurate and the meaning of the article is far from clear. He said he fully endorsed Mr. Root's proposed statement of reservation and understanding upon this point.

"I agree with Mr. Root that it would be desirable to eliminate article X, with its guaranty to 'preserve against external aggression the territorial integrity' of all members of the league and I still think that article X is a trouble breeder and not a peace maker.

Can't Commit Free Peoples

"If we are entering upon a new world order of democracies the inevitable consequences should be recognized. Democracies cannot promise war after the manner of monarchs. It is idle to attempt to commit free peoples to the making of war in an unknown contingency when such a war may be found to be clearly opposed to the dictates of justice.

"We should not enter into a guaranty which would expose us to the charge of bad faith, or of having defaulted in our obligation, notwithstanding that congress in refusing to make war had acted in accordance with its conception of duty in the circumstances disclosed."

While the covenant supporters argue that under article X, the council of the league must unanimously agree on the question of the fulfillment of an obligation, Mr. Hughes said, and that the United States could veto any proposal calling for intervention, still, Mr. Hughes wrote, that it is freely recognized that war can be declared only by congress.

NEED EQUIPMENT
MORE THAN WORD OF APPRECIATION

Springfield rifles just as soon as the supply is available, but some companies may have to be content with the Krag-Jorgensen rifles until the new model Springfield can be secured in sufficient quantities. However, they have been assured that the present arms, commonly called the Russian rifles will be called in and a much later type issued.

Show "Appreciation."

At the Aurora meeting, officers from the various organizations aired their grievances freely. Captain Fruin of this city, was strongly in favor of the state furnishing the men with rifles and uniforms. When a communication was read in which the adjutant general complimented the militia for its activities, the Dixon officer took the stand that this would be a much better way for the state to show its appreciation. He made a short talk before the meeting with reference to conditions throughout the militia in the northern part of the state.

During the course of his remarks, Captain Fruin favored placing returned soldiers in the reserve militia as commissioned officers, pointing out that they were much better trained and suited to act as officers. With one exception every officer present expressed himself as favoring the action as suggested by Captain Fruin and as being willing to part with shoulder bars to returned soldiers who might be selected to head the companies of reserve militia.

Following the business session, the officers were the guests of Col. Bacon at a dinner party. Many remained over Sunday but the local representatives returned home Saturday night.

ROOT BEER ALSO CONTAINS "KICK"

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Philadelphia, Pa., July 28.—Root beer made at home may not always be as innocent as its name. Prof. Charles H. La Wall, dean of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, cautions the public to look out for the kick. The home brew, he finds, has an alcoholic content of 1.77 per cent.

"It will take gallons to produce the familiar dizziness," he said, "but it may provide some exhilaration."

"I was surprised recently," declared Prof. La Wall, "to notice a friend coughing a little after drinking several glasses of home-made root beer. I became interested and began an analysis of some of the beverage. The result was surprising. I found that the alcoholic content was much greater than I had supposed."

"I discovered that after standing five days the beverage contained .53 per cent of alcohol; after ten days the percentage jumped to 1.35 and a day or so later had climbed to 1.77. The alcohol came from a natural fermentation."

LINCOLN WAY SUNDAY

Automobiles owned and driven by Rev. Martin of Swissville and H. S. Lowman of Lanark collided at the corner of First Ave. and Lincoln Way at 10 o'clock last evening, the accident creating considerable excitement and resulting in a call for an ambulance, which however, was not needed. Both cars were badly damaged, but none of the occupants were injured.

CLOSE GAME SUNDAYPitchers' Battie Goes to Lightner By Score of 4 to 3

The Dixon Browns won over Franklin Grove's picked team of star players yesterday afternoon in a pitching battle by a score of 4 to 3. George Lightner did the twirling for the locals while Beency, who has made quite a reputation in the past few seasons, performed for the visiting team. The hits were well scattered, both sides evening up with five hits each. Larkins who started to do the catching job for the Browns, was forced to give it up in the fifth on account of the heat.

The Browns have decided that no games will be played in their schedule during the progress of the Assembly and have booked games for out of town. Next Sunday they will go to Morrison where they will engage the town team of that place. Lightner being pitted against Huber for the pitching honors.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

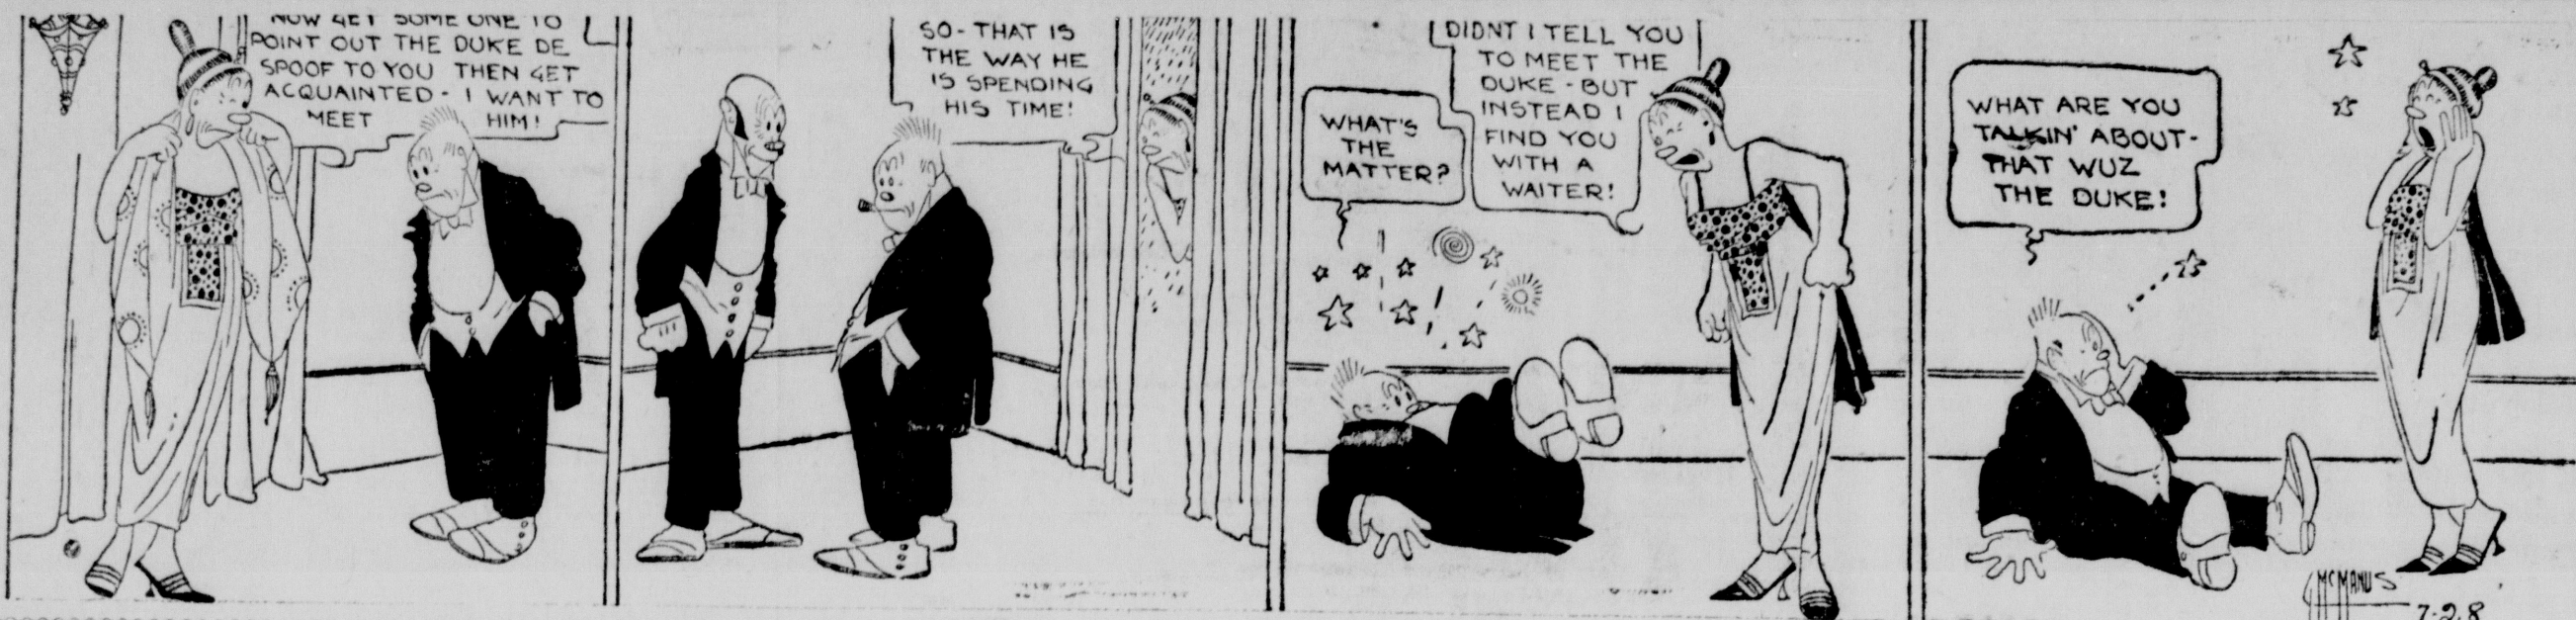

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe

AUTO TURNED OVER; BROKE COLLAR BONE

Charles Yingling of Franklin Grove, suffered a broken collar bone Sunday when his car turned turtle near the Brethren church in the northwestern part of Franklin Grove. He had taken Mr. and Mrs. Heber Heigley and baby for a pleasure drive and as they were making the hill near the church the car slipped down the embankment, turning over. Mrs. Heigley and her baby were sitting in the back and managed to get out from under the car, which is practically a total wreck, and go for assistance.

Charles Tyle, who lives near the site of the accident, heard the crash and assisted in raising the car so that Mr. Yingling and Mr. Heber could get clear of the wreckage. No one was injured with the exception of Mr. Yingling, although the escape from injury of the others is considered miraculous.

Haywood Released From Leavenworth

By Associated Press Leased Wire. Leavenworth, Kan., July 28.—Planning an immediate return to Chicago, to be followed later by a tour of the country, William D. Haywood, former secretary of the Industrial Workers of the World was released from the federal prison here today. Receipt of a writ from Chicago showing approval of his bond, pending an appeal, was the cause of his release. Re-asserting that he and 92 other I. W. W.'s had not been given a fair trial, but expressing confidence that the higher courts would reverse the decision of the lower courts in his case, Haywood said he would appeal in his tour, which is to begin in the east, to "the working men of the country."

NEW HIGH PRICES IN CORN DUE TO ABNORMAL HEAT

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, July 28.—New high price records for the season were touched in the corn market today as a result of abnormal heat and the continued drought. Material damage to the crop was reported by a leading expert. Trade was active, with demand chiefly from shorts and commission houses. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1/2c to 1 1/2c higher, with Sept. 1.96 1/2 to 1.96 1/2 and Dec. 1.67 1/2 to 1.69, were followed by moderate further gains.

Oats sympathized with the strength of corn. After opening 1/4c to 1/2c higher including Sept. at 80 1/2c to 80 1/2c the market continued to ascend.

Provisions were lifted by the grain bulge. Trade, however, was light. Later the market rose excitedly owing to sensational crop damage advices. According to one well-known authority, the injury in the central states now amounted to 25 per cent, and if drought and hot winds continued would be double in a week. Prices closed strong, 1 1/2c to 1 1/2c net higher with Sept. 1.97 1/2 to 1.97 1/2 and Dec. 1.72 to 1.72 1/2.

Carranza Anti-Saxon Expert Tells House Probing Committee

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, July 28.—Misled in their investigations of conditions in Mexico, William Bayard Hale and Lincoln Steffens in turn misled President Wilson into believing that President Carranza was the "people's champion," the house rules committee was told today by William Gates, an archaeologist of Baltimore. The committee is holding hearings on a resolution proposing investigation on the Mexican situation.

Declaring that his opinions were based on a first-hand study of conditions when he toured Mexico in 1917 and 1918, Gates described Carranza as "an enemy of his own people first, the United States second, and then all civilization." The Mexican president, the witness said, is more anti-Saxon than anti-American, hopes to set up the supremacy of the Latin races and desires to drive American and British capital from his country.
